AFTERWORDS

Through the chapter I couldn't help but think how poor and cute Masahiro was while being all powerless. Damn it Kousuke, do not go touching him when he's sick if you don't want to get punished later (lol).
Ps. Thanks Jess for cleaning up the gateau cover this page uses right there on the bottom. Also sorry for being so slow and late with this chapter ;___; It was ready in late August but stuff happened...

- Hagane productio

Have I already mentioned how much I love little Masahiro? Because I really do, he is just so precious and sweet. Like when he was thinking that he had to get better quickly so that he wouldn't bother the others, I really just wanted to hug him! At least he has Kousuke by his side (even if he is a little pervert haha). But anyway, hope you all enjoy this one, and see you all next month!

- JesSkull

Damn Kousuke when your wife's got a fever you better treat him nicely! Imma SMACK you if you tried to do that again ? (๑` ^ ´๑) ۶ Anyways hope you enjoyed this side chapter! For the next chapter we're going back to the main plot.

- Shosuke Yuu

Another cute side that you can see from this couple, I really love this chapter, so I hope you enjoy it too!
